

OPERATION TRANSIT NEWS FROM ALLEN AND DEEDEE

AUGUST 20, 2015

Dear friends and family,

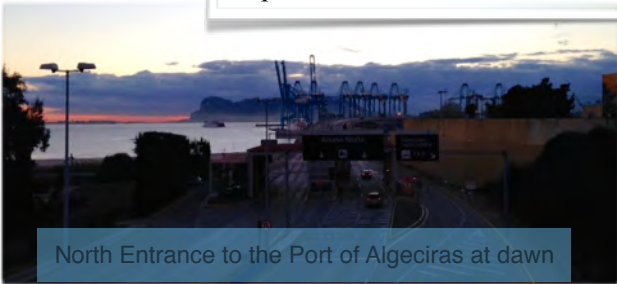

Thank you for all of your prayers and encouragement! We got to work closely with all four distribution sessions here in Algeciras this month. Volunteer teams came here from five continents to help give North African travelers New Testaments and DVDs on the life of Jesus, and we also had 9 Arabic-speaking Christian evangelists join us for the outreach.

I got to set up a prayer room, help welcome teams, and do additional work wherever needed: Allen managed the logistics for our incoming teams and usually helped lead distribution out at the port during the hottest part of the day. For a few days, though, Allen worked with a few other men on the overnight shift instead. One morning, we got this Email from our associate Bill Roop, who directs Operation Transit in Ceuta as well the Spanish Bible Society's "Bible House" there:

Many church teams: one outreach session

My son came on the overnight bus from Madrid. He was witnessing to the man in the seat next to him from [a Moroccan City]. But he needed a New Testament to give to this man. They got off the bus in the port at 5:30 am and there was Allen to complete the work and gave them the packet. Glory to God! Thank you to all of you for your faithfulness we will reap in due time. Let us continue on ahead with God's blessing. -Bill

North Entrance to the Port of Algeciras at dawn

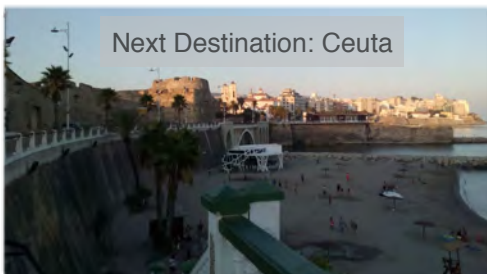

About 9,000 travelers accepted the gospel packets here in Algeciras. The evangelists got to talk with a lot of people and answer their questions about Jesus, and they saw 27 North Africans pray to receive Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. Our teams also helped with the same outreach over in Tarifa.

Now that the busiest time in Algeciras' port is finished, Allen is helping with the same work in Ceuta for several weeks. In the midst of all that, he still managed to complete the ministry's Financial reports! And in the middle of the month, our kids got to go to a church summer camp up near Antequera. This was their first year at the teen camp: they had all kinds of games and activities, and they said that the teaching was also very good. Next week the kids and I will be joining Allen in Ceuta for a little while.

Next Destination: Ceuta

Thank you again for all your help, encouragement, and prayers, which make our work here possible! We pray that God is blessing you greatly this summer. Serving Jesus with you,

Allen and Deedee
