Practice: Poetic License

Take time this week to read through John 15:1-12 at least two times and sit reflecting on what it means to be the branch in the vine. Take the space below, or another sheet of paper, and re-write John 15:1-12 in your own words, or paint a painting inspired by the scripture, or draw a drawing, or write a poem. Whatever way of expressing yourself and your reflections on John 15 seems natural to you.
