Prelude

Reflection During Prelude: What does “reformation” mean to me?

Call to Worship

Based on Hebrews 12:1-2

Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses,

Let us also lay aside every weight, and the sin that clings so closely

And let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us,

Looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith.

who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God. Amen

Opening Praise “Amazing Grace (My Chains Are Gone)”

Call to Confession

Based on Hebrews 12:6

Prayer of Confession

God of our ancestors, creator of the heavens and earth, forgive us for our negligence in following your ways. When we are left to ourselves, we will always stray. We repent of our rebellious nature. We seek you anew this morning to be made into your image. Draw us near, transform our hearts, and send us into the world to bring about your good will in all that we do.

(please take time for silent personal confession)

Assurance of Pardon

Based on Hebrews 12:11

Prayer for Illumination

Lord, we long to know your word. We desire it more than anything else. In your word we find breath and life.

Affirmation of Faith

Apostle’s Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.
