*Call to Worship

Based on Psalm 133 and 100

How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity!

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth.

The unity of God's people is like the precious oil on the head, running down upon the beard, on the beard of Aaron, running down over the collar of his robes.

Serve the Lord with gladness; come into his presence with singing.

The unity of God's people is like the dew of Hermon, which falls on the mountains of Zion. For there the Lord ordained his blessing, life forevermore.

Know that the Lord is God. It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

Let us come and worship our God together...

Opening Hymn #321 "The Church's One Foundation"

Call to Confession

Based on Philipians 2:3-4

Prayer of Confession

Lord, we must confess that we have not always loved as we are loved. We have been selfish and protected ourselves from vulnerability with our brothers and sisters in Christ. We have sought to live as an island, independent of those you have placed us in community with. Forgive us for the ways we have neglected community and believed we didn't need others. We turn away from the pride of our independence and welcome how you have made us one with your Body, the Church. Show us how to support one another as you intended and give us the humility to be served by those you have called to serve us.

(please take time for silent personal confession)

Assurance of Pardon

Based on 1 John 3:1, 3

Amen!

Amen!

Prayer for Illumination

Lord, mold our hearts with your loving potter's hands and make us to be as you have designed us. Breathe your breath of life into our souls as we hear your word that we may have life in you and you alone. Conform our lives to yours while we receive the word you have prepared for us.

Scriptures

Old Testament Deuteronomy 15:1-11 Pew Bible (OT) Pg. 165

Old Testament Psalm 133:1-3 Pew Bible (OT) Pg. 543
